CIRCUS ADVANCE AGENT

Leo Haggerty to Travel Ahead of Ringling Bros. Show.

Leo Haggerty, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Haggerty, of 15 Bellevue street, left town Wednesday to begin his new duties as advance agent for Ringling Brothers Circus. Mr. Haggerty, who has 22 men under him, will travel in a special Pullman car through the west, three weeks in advance of the big show and will reach California in time to see the exposition at its best. The return trip will be made some time in October.

Eye Removed.

Constable W. J. Hastings, who has been suffering for some time with a painful affection of the eye, was operated on Thursday morning, at 9 o'clock, in the Hartford hospital. The eye was removed successfully.

Boston Opera Singers at the Loomer
The Boston Opera Singers presented a splendid program of Operatic Arias and English songs at the Loomer Opera house, Thursday evening. The singers were all received with enthusiasm by the good sized audience of music lovers present. Edgar Littleton, who is a great favorite with Willimantic audiences, came in for his usual share of applause. Dancers selected

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Sarah M. Hayden.
Mrs. Sarah M. Hayden, who died Monday evening, was buried from her home, No. 244 Pleasant street, at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Pepper Vanderbilt of Brooklyn, N. Y., officiated. Burial was in the family plot in the Willimantic cemetery. The bearers were Robert F. Stanton, Samuel Chesbro, Ernest P. Chesbro, Sr., and Dewey A. Griggs. Undertaker Hiram N. Fenn was in charge of the arrangements.

Wilfred Dansereau.
Wilfred, the 21-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dansereau of Arden lane, died Thursday morning from diphtheria. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Fire Burned Over 200 Acres.
The forest fire which was burning Wednesday in the neighborhood of North Windham and Chaplin burned over some two hundred acres before the night's rain aided the efforts of the fire-fighters, and put an end to the damage. It is estimated that about three hundred cords of cordwood were destroyed. No dwelling was burned, although several in the track of the fire had close calls.

Game Warden's Case Tried on Two Counts.

Stephen L. Case of Warrenville, a game warden, was fined $15 for assault and $7 for breach of the peace, which with costs amounted to $24, at a session of court held Wednesday before Justice Amidon in Warrenville. E. H. Barlow of Westford was the complainant. It was claimed that Mr. Case went upon Barlow's land to fish and was ordered off. On the following Sunday he again tried the same course, at which words resulted, and the assault took place. The fine and costs were paid. Attorney P. J. Danahy of the city prosecuted the case.

Block Paving of Main Street.

It is expected that work on the block paving on Main street from the junction with Union to the railroad crossing will be started the first of next week. The contract to lay the cement bed has been let by the city to E. H. Jones. The city will itself be done under the direction of John Collins. The amount appropriated for this work is five thousand dollars, and it is hoped that will allow for some work on the easterly side of the railroad tracks as well as the stretch to Union street.

Eighteen Agents at Get-together Meeting.

The spring get-together meeting of the agents of Metropolitan Insurance company was held at the office of the company in this city Thursday afternoon. John Murray of New York, chief of the ordinary department of this work is five thousand dollars, and it is hoped that will allow for some work on the easterly side of the railroad tracks as well as the stretch to Union street.
